

THE GLORIOUS FOURTH.

Independence Day is Here and Gunpowder Smokes.

HOW IT WILL BE OBSERVED TO-DAY.

No General Celebration, but a Number of Picnics and More than Usual Sporting Events—Business Will be Suspended and Everybody Enjoy the Day—It Was Ushered in in Great Shape.

From the way July 4, 1895, was ushered in last night, it is fair to guess that it will be celebrated in a more impressive way than it has been for several years past, and this in spite of the fact that there will be no general formal observance. Gunpowder and fireworks are cheap, and the consumption bids fair to be accordingly increased. Last night firecrackers, rockets and all sorts of pyrotechnics were put off in all parts of town long before the capital clock announced with approximate correctness the arrival of the new day. Along Market street it looked and sounded as if a battle were raging. The streets were covered with burned paper, rocket sticks and other debris, and it seemed as if half the population was out till a very late hour this morning.

The banks and public offices will be closed to-day, it being a legal holiday. Most of the business houses will be closed all day and all of them most of the day. At the postoffice there will be collections at 9 and 10:45 a. m., at noon and 3:15 and 8 p. m. There will be one delivery at 8 a. m. The stamp window will be open from 8 to 10 a. m.

Perhaps the largest gathering of people will be on the State Fair grounds, where the cigar makers' assembly of the K. of L. will hold forth. There will be several interesting races, a base ball game and a general programme of amusements, and no doubt there will be a large assemblage there.

At Wheeling and Mozart parks very attractive programmes will be given for the entertainment of their patrons, each vying with the other in the effort to see what a brilliant success can be made of the day. Of course both will be thronged, as usual on a holiday.

The city should be decorated more generally than it usually is. Everybody who has a flag should fling it out to the breeze. There will be numerous private displays of fireworks this evening, and in all respects it bids fair to be, not exactly an old-fashioned, but an up-to-date Independence Day.

FLORSHEIM WILL ENJOIN.

The Well Known Coal Contractor "has a Kick Coming."

Henry Florsheim will make application to the United States courts for a preliminary injunction against the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, says the Pittsburgh Press, for alleged discrimination in car service to his Nottingham and Germania mines. The step is the outcome of his failure to secure a peaceable settlement of the matter by correspondence. The Germania and Nottingham mines are situated at Finleyville, on the Wheeling division of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad. Since the mines have resumed, after the settlement of the recent strike, all of the mines on this division have been badly crippled by the shortage of cars.

He accuses the Baltimore & Ohio Company of discriminating against him and furnishing other operators with cars which should have been placed at his disposal. The attempt to secure an injunction, however, has been expected by the railroad company, and may result in some unpleasant complications.

Mr. Florsheim was seen this morning by a Press reporter. He had but a slight idea as to what course he would pursue other than that he will endeavor to have the matter placed before the inter-state commerce commission for investigation. The other operators of the division are inclined to treat Mr. Florsheim's last move as a case of attempted bluffing, with a view to scare the railroad company into furnishing him with cars.

A Well Known Man Married.

It has just become public that on May 30, M. H. McNabb, of this city, and Miss Frances Cochrane, of Pittsburgh, were married in that city by Rev. J. Shano Nicholls, pastor of the Sixth Presbyterian church. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. McNabb repaired with their friends to the residence of an uncle of the bride, Mr. J. Howard Cochrane, of the East End, where an elegant supper was spread, and an enjoyable reception tendered the couple. It was their intention to keep the matter a secret, but the best laid plans "gang aft agley," and they will have the pleasure of reading their wedding notice before they expected. Mr. McNabb is a popular and well known young citizen of Wheeling, and his bride a very handsome young lady, well known here. They will have the heartiest congratulations and well wishes of all who know them, and the newspaper fraternity will especially felicitate the groom.

Mr. Hastings' Process in Use.

The Toronto, Can., Mail and Empire of June 29 has the following matter of interest to the hundreds of Wheeling people and other readers of the INTELLIGENCER who know Mr. Hastings: Toronto Junction, June 28.—(Special.)—The Malleable Iron and Steel works, which have been under construction for some time, commenced operations on Thursday, when the works were thrown open to the public, and many interesting tests made. These works are the first of their kind established on this continent, and will be operated under a patent of Mr. John B. Hastings, the inventor of the process, who was present this afternoon, and under whose direction the operations were conducted. The following gentlemen have charge of the works: General manager, Mr. Leigh; foreman of moulding department, Mr. John J. Johnson; head of machine department, Mr. W. J. Gore; secretary-treasurer, Mr. C. C. Goring.

The Fair Grounds are close to the city and the Cigar-makers' Picnic will be there on the Fourth.

Dr. Witt's Colic and Cholera Cure never disappoints, never fails to give immediate relief. It cures just as sure as you take it. Logan Drug Co., Wheeling, W. Va., H. F. Penbody, Newwood, and Bowie & Co., Bridgeport, O.

A housekeeper, H. S. Shaffer, of the Freeman House, Middleburg, N. Y., on the knee, which laid him up in bed and caused the knee joint to become stiff. A friend recommended him to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did, and in two days was able to be around. Mr. Shaffer has recommended it to many others and says it is excellent for any kind of a bruise or sprain. This same balm is also famous for its cures of rheumatism.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

Matters of Minor Moment in and About the City.

All hail to the American eagle. To the American eagle all hail! The bird that none can inveigle. Nor put salt on his beautiful tail. —Old Song.

Fritz Werner was fined $1 and costs in the police court yesterday for disorder, and paid. His was the only case.

Officer Allen last evening arrested a Fulton man named Neuhard, for being drunk on the street in East Wheeling.

A FOURTH OF JULY eve concert and dance was given last night at Remole's Garden, on South Main street. The occasion was enjoyable to a large crowd.

The boiler makers' and iron ship builders' brotherhood, union No. 153, will have a benefit ball at Bischoff's hall, on Eighteenth street, Friday night next.

A BALTIMORE & OHIO brakeman named Steele put a tramp off his train at Belton Tuesday night, and the man threw a sharp rock, cutting Steele badly on the head.

CHARLES HOWARD SIMPSON was yesterday appointed guardian of Hannibal Forbes Simpson, aged three, and gave bond in $10,000, with William H. Simpson as surety.

The annual meeting of the Ohio county teachers' association will be held at West Liberty this year, from July 13 to 15, and a good programme has been arranged.

Mr. WILLIAM COX has in his possession a gold medal issued to a young lady by an Ohio Catholic school. He found it on the street last Saturday and has not been able to find an owner.

YESTERDAY County Clerk Hook entered an order formally committing to the Children's Home, on Thirtieth street, Alberta and Pearl Watkins and Bruce C. Phillips, three minor orphans.

SAM BRUBAKER'S "Wigwag," at the corner of Market and Fourteenth streets, was successfully opened yesterday. Scores of his old friends dropped in to congratulate him on his handsome place.

The horse attached to the bread wagon of H. Floto, of Wheeling, ran off last evening on Jefferson street, in Martin's Ferry, damaged the wagon considerably and scattered the bread all along the street.

JOE ZIGENFELDER, of the Atlantic engine house, is mourning the loss of his pet crow. It could talk, as the boys say, "like a bird." Somebody poisoned it night before last. It is thought the fatal dose was intended for a dog.

THU Sabbath school scholars of the M. E. church, Bridgeport, will picnic to-day at Cresap's grove, down the river. They will leave Bridgeport on the 8 o'clock motor and take the Lizzie Townsend at the wharf, returning again in the evening.

WILD rumors are afloat every day of new cases of smallpox. At the health office, however, the assurance is given that there have been no cases except those reported, and no deaths but that of the Thompson boy, mentioned yesterday, for several weeks.

In the window at Nicoll's art store is displayed a portrait of Abraham Lincoln as he appeared when he went to Washington to be inaugurated President. It was painted by J. A. Faris, of the Island, from a photograph made by his brother, Thomas Faris, of New York, in 1861. It is a very lifelike portrait.

CHOSE A PUGILIST.

Billy Waters Appointed Minister of War in Formosa.

VICTORIA, B. C., July 3.—The steamer Empress of China brings the news that "Billy" Waters, of Victoria and San Francisco, pugilist and bar-room bouncer, was made minister of war and vice president of the new republic of Formosa.

Water's connection with the new-born republic dates back only a few months, when he obtained employment at the Tappan Fu forts as instructor. It was his pugilistic powers that brought him into prominence. One night some Chinese mandarin attempted to interfere unduly with Billy's pre-rogative and the ex-pugilist promptly laid them out and handled their body guard at the same free and easy fashion.

His value from a military standpoint was immediately recognized by the governor.

A PECULIAR CASE.

A Sensational Turn to a Divorce Case in Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 3.—Judge Payne today entered an order in the divorce case of Alonzo E. Cottier against his wife, Lizzie Cottier, to compel Mrs. Cottier to disclose the whereabouts of their child Florence, who has not been seen by her father for twelve years. In 1885 Mrs. Cottier admitted to the Buffalo police that she had thrown the child into the Niagara river. Then she was confined in the state insane asylum. A short time after this Mrs. Cottier said that she had given her child to friends, who are in possession of her.

The answer of Mrs. Cottier shows that her husband is a man worth $250,000. He is living in Chicago, although not engaged in any permanent business. He has large interests in Buffalo, which place he left in 1893, in order, as his wife claims, to obtain a divorce. For a number of years Mrs. Cottier has been engaged in New York and Washington as an expert stenographer.

Advanced Wages.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 3.—The Cleveland City Forge and Iron Company have advanced the wages of their men ten per cent. The company employs 275 men. The advance is given because of increased business.

PLENTY of amusements at the Cigar-makers' Picnic, July 4.

FOR SOUND MONEY.

Business Men of Charleston Organize to Combat the Dishonest Currency Propaganda.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., July 3.—A sound money league has been organized in this city. It has a membership of 150, and the organizers are preparing to push the organization so that it will include the business men of Kanawha county, who believe in an honest dollar of national currency. The organization has been modestly made, and without ostentation. The membership has augmented until it numbers many of the most substantial business men of the city. Last night the league held a meeting in the supreme court room. Among those in attendance were Messrs. J. D. Baines, Col. R. W. Byrne, A. M. Scott, C. C. Lewis, Jr., Fred Paul Grosseup, E. H. Easley, J. T. Waters, C. L. Thompson, A. W. Watrous, W. S. Lewis, L. Schwabe and Frank Woodman. The salient features of the organization are the following taken from the minutes:

"First—To give organized form, direction and impulse to the sound money sentiment of the Kanawha valley.

"Second—To conduct a campaign of education by the dissemination of wholesome sound money literature.

"Third—The use of all other honorable, reasonable and legitimate endeavors to promote the cause of sound money, and to counteract the influence of the propaganda of crude, erroneous or dangerous views upon the subject of currency."

INTENT OF A VOTER

Must be Considered—Judge Faulkner Makes an Important Decision Involving the Election Law.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

MARTINSBURG, W. Va., July 3.—The election case of Proctor against Martin was decided by Judge E. Boyd Faulkner in the circuit court here to-day in favor of Proctor. Proctor was unseated by a board of Republican commissioners on the ground that one ballot cast for him was marked with a lead pencil instead of with a pen, as the statute directs. Judge Faulkner read from the authorities showing that where the intention of the party is so apparent the vote should be counted and ordered an order directing the commissioners to count the vote.

Mrs. Charles Goff's Death.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

CLARKSBURG, W. Va., July 3.—The funeral of Mrs. Charles Goff occurred here to-day, the remains being followed to the grave by many sorrowing friends. Mrs. Goff died in New York from the results of a surgical operation. Deceased was the wife of Hon. Charles J. Goff, was a sister of Mr. Charles M. Hart, the well known manufacturer, and her untimely death is mourned by a host of friends and relatives.

A Cashier Goes Wrong.

STUBENBURG, Mo., July 3.—The Exchange Bank, of this city, has closed its doors, pending an examination. William Wincott, the cashier, confessed to the directors that he had used $25,000, his salary having been too small to live comfortably. The bank will unquestionably reopen before long.

Cash in the Treasury.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 3.—To-day's statement of the condition of the treasury shows: Available cash balance, $193,030,091; gold reserve, $107,559,770.

NOTES ON NAVIGATION.

Stage of Water and Movements of Boats, The River Interests.

The marks last evening showed 4 feet and nearly stationary. Weather clear and warm.

The steamer Lexington will make her regular run to-day, leaving at 10:30 a. m. sharp for New Matamoras and way landings.

Owing to the continued low stage of water the coal business is at a standstill. The coal loaded and ready to depart the first rise exceeds 21,000,000 bushels. There has been no shipment by water since April; this is something unusual. When the river is low in May a big June rise is pretty certain to be on time; this year low water has proved very disastrous to the coal men. We remember one year that there was no rise from May to the 25th of December, which caused a coal famine in the west and south; coal sold at Cincinnati at forty-five cents a bushel.—Engineering and Mining Journal.

STATIONARY AT PITTSBURGH.

Pittsburgh—River 3-10 feet at dam and stationary. Weather clear and pleasant.

Steubenville—River 3 feet 4 inches and rising. Weather cloudy and warm.

Greensboro—River 7 feet 7 inches and falling. Weather fair and warm.

Oil City—River 1 foot 1 inch and falling. Weather clear and pleasant.

Warren—River 8-10 of 1 foot and falling. Weather clear and pleasant.

Parkersburg—River 4 feet 2 inches and rising. Weather cloudy with the mercury at 79.

Steamer Jennie George will take the steamer Liberty's place in the Clarksburg and Wheeling trade, commencing Monday.

WARM WEATHER IS COMING.

SOME MERCHANTS would have you believe that trade enters a condition of torpidity about July 1, and remains so till the cool days of September wake it to life and activity again.

But, begging your pardon, that is not true. There is no season of the year in which people do not buy goods; there is no season in which they do not want them. By the same token, there is no season in which it will not pay to advertise.

However, if your neighbor has this old-fashioned notion, and is too conservative to advertise now, there is all the better chance for you. If you think people are not hunting bargains in warm weather, try it.

Everybody is not out of town, by a large majority!
